FAROBANK TOO SLOW

Farobank is pot found, openly played at least, in Tijuana, and the reason for this is that it is too slow a game for the taste of the crowds of Americans who like fast sutomobiles, and fast games. There was a farobank a few weeks ago but it was patronized mostly by professional gamblers from the States, untif one of them broke the bank, and then a $50 limit was put on and the game waned. The farohouse percentage is small if the game is honestly dealt.

In Old Town the largest public sambling resort is the Tivoli Club, back of the Tivoli Bar on the main street. It is not so large as the Monte Carlo, but has perhaps fifteen games in full blast. These are craps, many of twenty-one, and a few poker tables, with dealers to collect the house percentages. Also there are some twenty-one games in the Tijuana Bar.

The play at these games is almost always in American silver dollars and in the rapid games, and most of them are quick-fire, one may FAROBANK TOO SLOW and in the rapid games, and most of them are quick-fire, one may get rid of a good deal of money in an evening. Seldom is 50 cents played and almost never a smaller amount. Of course, these are private games, for sporting visitors with means, where there are large stakes at poker and other games of skill, but the bulk of the crowd plays in dollar stakes. The usual house limit on a bet is $25.

Piker play is accommodated by glot machines, which take nickels, dimes and quarters. These are found in almost every one of the many saloons and dance halls which are alternated along Tijuana's main street. There are attendants to make change at these machines. Tourist visitors from the States who think gambling a sin are seen playing these machines, which they consider like so many penny in the slot weighing or gum machines, and their consciences are usually soothed when they find no difficulty in disposing of their chance winnings back into the mysterious clockwork of the machines. The machines are of the same type that were found in American border saloons in years past. The young people who come over, primarily to drink and dance, alternate between a dance, a drink and a fly at the slot machines, and thus pass a very merry evening.

This is all plus the gambling on the races, where there are mutuel machines and books. The midwinter season of the race is now in full swing, with programs daily except Monday. The race crowds are orderly and usually sober, but the night crowds at the gambling and dancing halls are as rough as one can find anywhere. Yet for the most part they are made up of Americans who ordinarily would not be considered dirseputable. Many yeung men and women came over for the curiosity of the thing. The low life of the place is submerged by this flood of apparent respectability, but they at once start in to drink, and by midnight there are howling crowds in every resort and along the streets.

The returners are welcomed at the line by prohibition inspectors who make sure no liquor is being smuggled, and TIJUANA (Lower California, Mexico) Dec. 11.—Gambling is now wide open in Tijuana, and has been for the last two or three weeks. The ban that restricted it to the horse races and to some few games of chance evidently is now off. There are two large gambling halls and several small ones, offering all the now popular games and open to the public. They are crowded, especially on week-ends with Americans from far and wide.

The highway between San Diego and the gambling resort is crowded with private automobiles and autostages. As before, many Americans 6 come to drink and to dance in the tango palaces where the orchestras are not stilled at m.dnight.

NO FORMAL VOTE

In order to insure free discussion, without committing any participant in the conference, no motion or formal vote on any of the questions discussed will be entertained, the announcement says. All discussions, however, will be reported and arrangements made for an early issuance of the printed proceedings of the conference.

The first session will convene at 10 a.m. and it will be continued during the afternoon and evening and during the following day. In view of the controversial views which have attended the discussion of an immigration policy for the United States by various leaders in public activities, the fullest consideration of all elements of the immigration question is desired, the outlined program announces Discussion will be limited to ten minutes by each speaker on any single question, so the fullest symposium on what the country needs in its new immigration laws may be afforded.

The fact that successful corporations such as these are centering their efforts in Planada means a great deal to the conservative investor—it also means that the time to act is limited.

Fig orchards in this district are averaging a net profit of 25 to 40 per cent on a valuation of only $1500 per acre at the most conservative estimate. With the steadily growing demand for fresh figs and for canning, profits will be greatly increased. INSTANTLY KILLED in Shop with Iron Bar PEXCLUSIVE DISPATCH

BAKERSFIELD, Dec. 10.—Higgins McFadden of Taft was instantly killed when he was struck on the head with an iron bar he was using to start the stalled wheel of a machine in the shop of McFadden & Sill. McFadden had placed the bar between the spokes of the wheel to start in operation when suddenly it started at a high rate of speed, causing the heavy instrument to fly around and hit him. Before McFallen could be pulled from under the machine the heavy bar in the course of its revolutions, hit him repeatedly in the chest and inflicted terrible injuries.

McFadden is survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. Tod Mosier of this city.

The body is at the Taft undertaking parlors from where funeral services will be conducted. A verdict of accidental death was returned by Corpner House's jury on Sunday.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10. Charley Paddock, somewhat disguised by means of a boilerplate shirt, tuxedo necktie and a pair of crutches, blew into town yesterday afternoon on the Union Pacific, accompanied by several hundred other passengers and a young dust tor-nado which had picked up the bed of the Los Angeles River and was broadcasting same all over the landscape. When interviewed regarding the injury to his celebrated limb Mr. Paddock cheerfully dragged through the dirt blizzard to his home in Pasadena.

The injury which cut short his lecture tour apparently hasn't done any damage to his disposition, as Charley is just as muscles of his leg being separated completely from his heel. However, Charley was able to wear his ordinary shoe on the left foot, where the injury is located, and seemed to think that after all he might not be completely out of competition.

The great sprinter undoubtedly has hopes of doing some more running and cut short his trip in order to get home where he could get the very best of attention to the injured member. Charley has it all doped out that this is his big opportunity and is extremely anxious to go across on the Olympic team and show them how to step out over there.

If Paddock's injury should prove sufficiently serious to keep him from running this year and the recent injury to Murchison should likewise prevent the great middledistance sprinter from competing, the United States would be without a real veteran short-distance man for the Olympic games, being forced to rely upon more or less untried material.

The World's Fastest Human

Charley Comes Home on Four Legs grinned, "Oh, such is life," and It's so close to Christmas it might be well for Paddock to join in the yuletide spirit by taking a tin cup and going into business along Broadway.

GOOD MATERIAL

Coach Sid Nichois jumps into his job at Occidental with a fine bunch of material on hand, and if the Tigers don't finish high in the standings this year a lot of folks are going to be badly disappointed. The Bengals lost only Norton from last year's five, and with two or three stellar, frosh performers to fill out the varsity berths are confident of giving the other conference teams plenty to worry about. Wagner and Ebers are among Nichols's best men.

IDAHO BASKETERS GO BARNSTORMING

It looks very much as though Dean Cromwell was going to have one of those track teams that you dream about again this year. The early-season relays last week demonstrated that the Trojans are going to be unusually strong in the hurdles and dashes again, while their well-known ability to hog the points in the field events needs no repetition. The old Trojan weakness in the distances, however, seems to be present again, but won't be nearly as bad as R used to be.

With Ryder and Corey in the Ngh jump, Wilson and Otto Anderson in the broad with Ryder and Corey in the High Jump, Wilson and Otto Anderson in the broad jump. White in the pole vault. Houser, Norm Anderson and Thomas in the weights and Wingard in the Javelin the Trojans have no real weakness in the field. Otto Anderson, Stever and Dye are a trio of great hardlers. In the sprints, including the 440, Cromwell has Yafe Martz, Otto Anderson, Starry, Lowe, Thurmond Clarke and a flock of other speed merchants.

Cromwell lost the man he considered his best prospect in the distances this year when Basil Irwin, a recruit from Cedar Rapids, pulled out for home just as he was about to become eligible. He had a good record as miler. Cromwell has left for the 880 Percy Niersbach and Huber Smutz, both good for 2:03, and for the mile Mike Eliwood, a promising young man, who didn't do much in high school, but showed speed as a freshman. Looks as though Cromwell could spot the northern schools some 20 points again this season in the distances and still give them a run for the money.

DAUDET DEATH BAFFLES PARIS

French Sherlock Called on to Solve Mystery

Murder by Suggestion is One Theory Advanced

Famous Father Places Blame on Anarchists

BY WILBUR FORREST

(BY CARLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
(Cosynight, 1922, by the Chicago Tribune.)

PARIS. Dec. 10.—M. Faralicq, is freely between the charged personality.

French detective circles, is now engaged in an affair of deduction which some beyond the most intricate piots ever conceived by Sirarchine Conan Doyle or Gaston Leroux—or even Edgar Allen Poethe anarchists of Paris poured by suggestion into the impressionistic brain of 15-year-old Philippe Daudet the idea of going forth to commit murder. And also, whether the instructions for homicide.

Again, was the you't actually overpowered by mental suggestion while in the anarchist camp, and was he really en route to kill some one — perhaps his own father, France's royalist leader? And in a moment of lucidity while riding in a taxicab down the boulevards of Paris did the horror of his intentices strike him and cause him to fire the bullet through his own brain?

PECULIAR CASE

Faralicq and his operatives are combing every shred of evidence which might indicate that the small bore revolver was placed in the youth's hands by anarchists with whom he had been intimately acordiaced with several days before the suicide. If he proves that this is what was done, then the courts will be called upon to deal with a case which will merit the attention of psychological, anthropological and criminological experts the world over.

There is no criminal statute in effect here which could cause com-BY WILBUR FORREST ical and criminological experts the world over.

There is no criminal statute in effect here which could cause conviction on the charges of "murder by suggestion." However, Leon Daudet who, aside from his royalist leadership, is editor of the paper L'Action Francaise and a member of the Chamber of Deputies, as well as being somewhat of an author, thanks to the fame of his father Alphonse Daudet, charges that his son was brutally humation of the body followed by a careful autopsy conclusively shows, however, that this charge falls down, but another important charge is now being briught by the father—that of an anarchist having obdicted his son and influenced the lad, a minor if Faral'cq is able to obtain exidence in support of this second charge the judicial procedure which will follow in an attempt to trace responsibility for the youth's tragic end to "suggestion" will bring out many things about the life of the young school boy. He was an exceedingly brilliant scholar and popular among his companions and poetically inclined but it may be shown that he was a prime subject for suggestive influence as he was afflicted with acute reurasthenia, which led him to disappear periodically from his home and school for days at a time and give him a changed personality.

a great role in future developments."

CHARGES MURDER

Writing in his paper, the 'eldest Daudet maintains that his son was murdered as a resuit of a "dastardly anarchist conspiracy" against himself. All clews with respect to "suggestion" have so far, as ingularly enough, enamated from the anarchist side itself. Thus Georges Vidal, one of the editors of the anarchist newspaper. Liberative, admits in his daily writings in that paper that a youth with whose identity he was acquainted was much in his company just before the suicide occurred.

This youth, Vidal says, carne to him professing adherance to the anarchist cause and pleaded a chance to prove his feality by offering to kill some one. Vidal, who is 21 years of age, although a radical advocate for social turmoil confesses indirectly that he acted as mentor to the youth, but insisted that the lad act with moderation. Despite all this it was Vidal in a special edition of his newspaper who disclose the identity of the youth to the public at or after the suicide and quiet burial in Perella Chaise cemetery.

Vidal's writings were the first to suggest that Phillipse had been "a prey to incontestable nervousness and decided to assassinate his own father." But, continued the anarchist writer, on the following day the 1 cy revolted a the left and ceided to kill himself.

It was also from the writing of Vidal that Comrade" Phillippe conceived the idea of avenging the Berlon woman who is now in prison awaiting trial in a case in which elder Daudet will be the accuser and principal witness. The question Faralicq is now endeavoring to solve is, did Vidal or some other more mature anarchist put into the head of the impressionistic and really sick boy these things which they now ascribe as his motive in faring forth with a loaded revolver. Was the weapon given to I im and if so, by whom?

lonesome because, on that massive steel ship, there was not a single bag of popcorn, not a flake.

The peanuts languished. Their ship left Tsingtao March 31 last and reached San Pedro May 7.

From then until May 22 they lay in the harbor at San Pedro. They got damp and moldy. On May 22 they left for Seattle, still aboard the Canadian Prospector, but they were carried to Victoria, B. C., and transhipped to Seattle.

During this entire voyage, the Wilcox-Hayes Company contends, the poor little peanuts were not given a breath of fresh air. The libel suit filed in the United States District Court here against another boat of the same line, the Canadian Importer, implied that the air at San Pedro was bad for peanuts, anyway.

Canadian Importer, implied that the air at San Pedro was bad for peanuts, anyway.

The libel action against the Canadian Importer contained the following allegations: So many of the peanuts were spoiled that it cost the Wilcox-Hayes Company $2128.22 to recondition them. Lote of them were so forlorn that they could not be revived. The company further states that it sold the reconditioned peanuts for $2120.65 less than they would have brought had they arrived in good condition. The company asked damages of $4246.36 from the Canadian government Merchant Marine, Ltd., owner of the two vessels.

Perhaps it was lack of proper stowing and proper ventilation that spoiled the peanuts, but at the Federal Building those who handled the action were wondering if the peanuts would not have come through in good condition if they had had just one bag of popcorn for company.

BE OUR GUESTS TOMORROW—

If you are interested in a development of an exclusive nature we would be pleased to have you as our guests at the OPENING OF BIONA HILLS TRACT FOR BETTER HOMES and the SHOWING OF THE WESTWARD-HO CLUB TOMORROW.

LOCATION-

Biona Hills is located nine miles from Sixth and Broadway and four miles from the sea, midway between the Santa Monica Mountains and the Baldwin Hills.

It is directly in the path of the natural westward development, at the intersection of Venice and Sawtelle boulevards. Venice Boulevard is soon to be a 180-foot double-boulevard extending from the City to the ocean and forms the southern boundary of the Biona Hills Tract. Sawtelle Boulevard is the first crosstown boulevard west of Western Avenue to intersect all the main East and West boulevards and will be an eighty-foot roadway extending from the mountains to the Harbor. It is the east boundary of Biona Hills. Washington Boulevard, now the greatest traveled road to the ocean is but a short distance south of the tract.

THE PRESENT AND PROBABLE FUTURE

BIONA HILLS is a new community that offers much that is lacking in most other sections. It is the connecting link between Palms and Ocean Park Heights, where are found splendid homes and permanent residents. It is easy of access and affords the educational and amusement facilities of Los Angeles and the Bay District. The future of Biona Hills is bright. The subway transportation of the future will surely force all property values upward. It will be essentially a community of good homes with a social and cultural environment that is enhanced by the Westward-Ho Club on the property and which will not be equaled by any other community. A community of happy, contented people with social and commercial life centered in themselves-complete, artistic, with all advantages of the city, but with no city taxes to

TRANSPORTATION—

The Venice Short Line offers ten to twentyminute service daily and five to fifteen-minute service on Sunday and holidays, making the run to Los Angeles in about half an hour. This line will have one of the first subways out of Los Angeles, which will cut down the running time about one-half.

THE WESTWARD HO CLUB

The Westward-Ho Club is a social club patterned after clubs of the same name in Chicago and London. This site has been chosen by the founders on account of its many natural features. Membership in this club will be offered buyers of homesites in Biona Hills, subject to stringent qualifications that will keep the membership to a high social stand-

A WORD ABOUT CLIMATE

The ocean—a few miles westward—makes the climate most even and mild. The hills to the north, west and south prevent high winds, yet allow of the sea breezes to cool and invigorate. There is no better climate in Southern California than that of Biona Hills.

EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES

Excellent grammar school work and the fine Venice High School, unexcelled in its classification, are at the pleasure of Biona Hills residents. The numerous colleges, military academies, schools for girls and educational institutions of Los Angeles and Hollywood are very close at

CHEMICAL LOSS IN JAPAN GREAT

Workers Killed and Driven From Factory Zones

Industry's Recovery Slowed Up by Devastation

Replacing of Expert Labor Baffling Problem

(EXCLOSIVE DISPATCH)
NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—The earthquake inflicted appalling losses upon Japan's chemical industries, according to Tokio advices to the American Chemical Society, Industrial recovery, it was said, will be difficult owing to the killing and scattering of workers. Replacement of expert labor was described as one of the most baffling problems confronting Japan.

"The commercial and industrial districts of Tokio and almost the whole of Yokohama were destroyed by fire," says the report, which will be published in the official journal of the society. "In the Honjyo and Fukagawa districts many chemical factories were almost completely destroyed. There were about 1100 factories in the two districts, employing about 70,000 people." In the Fukagawa district was located the Asano Cement Company, whose products are well known among the cement users. The remaining factories are situated in the suburbs of the city, where the damage was was com-

whose products are well known among the cement users. The remaining factories are situated in the suburbs of the city, where the damage was was comparatively small. The total number of factories in the Tokio Prefecture was about 25.125, employing 152,906 male and 72,391 female workers; 10,915 factories were destroyed and 78.297 peeple lost their position. The total damage of the factories is estimated to be about 36 to 40 per cent.

GOVERNMENT TO LEND

The important factories situated eutside the burned districts can begin work after two to air months. However, the recovery of these factories is not easy; they must build new buildings and gather workmen, machines and raw materials. As far as they have money, factories, machines and raw materials will be obtained, but the expert workmen cannot be obtained with money. The government intends to lend money for recovering these totally or party destroyed factories at low interest through the industrial Bank of Japan or the agricultural and industrial banks.

"There were many male and female subworkers who were making important contributions to general andustry. For example, the labeling of match boxes was conducted by these subworkers. The catastrophe has killed many of these workers and scattered the others inte the country. This will greatly hinder the recovery of many of the "Raw and finished cast-iron materials needed in Tokio factories have been supplied from about 200 factories in Kawaguchi-machi, near Tokio. About 50 per cent of these were affected by the disaster and their recovery is now under consideration in the Agricultural and Commercial Department.

"The special committee of the government is now planning the crection of New Tokio. As soon as the plans are completed new factories will be built and the sky of the Honjyo and Fukagawa districts will be blackened with the smoke from the factories' chimneys, as these districts will continue to be factory districts.

"The chief damage sustained from the calamity, viewed from the standpoint of capitalists, is the loss of raw materials and finished products. This loss will be replaced by money. It is now the case from the standpoint of workers. They are now stripped of everything; they cannot work at their trades for they have no factories. They are forced to seek work of what-

DYE INDUSTRY STRONG
Like other chemical industries, the report adds, the dyestuff industry in Japan has made rapid progress since the war. The Nippon Senryo Kaisha in Osaka, subsidized with 19,006,009 yen by the government, has grown to be the largest and most representative.

"With the aid of this government money," the report concludes, "the manufacturing processes of ment money the report concludes the manufacturing processes of the following substances have been complete: One hundred and fifty eight kinds of intermediates and 14 assistant reagent, medicine, etc., owhich 45 aniline dyes, 59 intermediates and 21 assistants, etc., have been placed on the market. The annual manufacturing capacity is 2,200,000 kin of aniline dyes, in cluding aniline sait, while the annual consumption of aniline dyes in this country is about 4,708,000 kin of the consumption of aniline dyes.

VANCOUVER. Dec. 10.—Butter from New Zealand is traveling 10,600 miles via the port of Vancouver to get to Japan, while a direct refrigerator service would mean only about 4000 miles. Approximately 50,000 pounds of butter have moved via this port to the Japanese market since the disparent service.

the Japanese market since the disaster in Yokohama.

Carried in refrigerator space of the Canadian Australian Roya Mail Steamship boats from Auckland to Vancouver, it is transshipped to the cooler space of the Canadian Pacific Empress liners which take it to Japan.

Canada has been shipping butter to the United Kingsom, to New York and to San Francisco and has been neglecting the Japanese market. This brought New Zealand into the field with heavy exports.

During the year endighad were approximately 700,000 tons, were approximately 700,000 tons, necluding pork products, dairy products, vegetable oils, oil seeds, etc.

Including pork products, dairy products, vegetable oils, oil seeds, etc.

Taking last year as a basis a rough approximation of the imports necessary (provided normal distribution could be re-established) would indicate a minimum of at least 50,000,000 bushels of the least 50,000,000 bushels of the least state of the same quantity of fats and vegetable oils and seeds as last year, that is, about 100,000 tons. The value of necessary imports is likely, however, to be increased by the factors arising out of the breakdown of internal distribution referred to later.

Imports are still in progress by the exchange of diminishing exports, but supplies from this source are further limited by the tendency of exporters to hold their alances in stable currencies abroad, or to devote them to purshed particular distribution referred to later.

This latter difficulty arises because aport to convert foreign currencies into German currency is to see them disappear in depreciation. Food merchants are unable to find foreign credits and the government disappear in depreciation. Food merchants are unable to find foreign credits and the government of a volume required to meet the struction.

My husband gave me a new car for Christmas-

"-and I've actually saved enough money on the car to buy a new fur coat for this Christmas! I know that sounds strange-but it's true. My old car cost so much to operate that it took all my allowance. But it takes so little to run my Studebaker that I save money every month.

'Why don't you ask your husband to trade in his old car on a new Studebaker Light Six-and 'surprise' you this Christmas morning? You can't ask for a finer car-yet it costs so much less to run that you'll have plenty of money to buy other

What an ideal way to economize! Whyyou actually save money by driving a finer car. Your operating cost for 25,000 glorious miles in a Studebaker Light Six is $207.50 less-for accountants have proved that the average lowerpriced car (selling from $1200 to $700) costs 11.4% more to operate than the Studebaker. Just think of the many things you could buy with that $207.50. And you can afford them-if you drive the economical Studebaker.

Perhaps you now drive a car priced below $700. For only 4-100ths of a cent per mile more -one cent every 25 miles-you can have the greater luxury, beauty, comfort and mechanical perfection of the Studebaker Light Six!

A Studebaker Light Six touring car costs only $1210, delivered. And prices on other models have just been reduced. Trade in your old car -or pay about $400 down-and you can drive away in your new Studebaker.

Would you, madam, like your husband to give you a Studebaker for Christmas? Telephone us and we will suggest it to him. Then perhaps we will have the pleasure of delivering a fine new Studebaker to your door on Christmas morning!

Or-talk it over with your husband tonight. Tell him you want a car that costs less to run-a car you will be proud to ride in-a Studebaker! On a phoned request from you or your husband, we will deliver a car anywhere for you to test and drive yourself.

INVESTMENT FEATURES

(As summarized by F. E. Keeler, President of the Company, from his letter to us)

SECURITY: These bonds will be secured by a First Mortgage on the valuable 99-year leasehold interest in the real property situated at the northeast corner of Fifth and Hill streets. Los Angeles, together with the 13-story, fireproof, Class "A" reinforced concrete store and office building now under construction thereon. The property has a frontage of 100 feet on Fifth Street and 115 feet on Hill and is diagonally opposite the northeast construction. east corner of Pershing Square.

VALUATION: Scofield Engineering-Construction Company, builders of many large structures in Los Angeles, including the Biltmore Hotel and Pacific Mutual Buildings, has undertaken the construction of this building, which they estimate will cost $1,365.000, including carrying charges. This bond issue of $800,000, therefore, constitutes an indebtedness of less than 60% of the security pledged without giving any consideration whatever to the valuable leasehold interest.

EARNINGS: A careful and conservative estimate of earnings, based upon applications for space already re-ceived, is as follows: Gross Earnings— Offices at $3.25 per sq. ft.

(average)$307,775 Ground floor stores and basement 207.768 $515,543

SAFEGUARDS: Proceeds of this bond issue must be deposited with the Trustee in a Building Fund to be devoted entirely to the construction of the building and devoted entirely to the construction of the building and to be paid out by the Trustee only upon receipt of proper demands from the Company, certified by the architects, showing work done. The Company must also execute and deliver to the Trustee a surety bond for $600,000 insuring completion of the building free of all liens except that of this bond issue. BUILDING: This building will represent the latestype of modern office building architecture and the plan have been approved by the Building Planning Committee of the Business Property Owners' and Managers' Association. Construction will be of Clar Arreinforced concrete and the exterior will be term cost or faced brick and terra cotta. Lobbies, corridon, exwill be of marble and terrazzo and the interior trim will be of hardwood throughout. Four high speed goales electric elevators will furnish adequate service.

LOCATION: This corner is regarded as one of the most valuable store and office building sites within the central husiness district. Space in office buildings amonding Pershing Square, being limited, has always been in great demand. Fifth Street has long been recommend as one of the most important downtown thorombian and property values along it are very stable. It estention through to Sixth in the near future will further increase the value of this corner.

CAPITALIZATION: Capitalization of the Com

STOCKHOLDERS: Prominent among holders of this Company may be mentioned F E Keeler, Glenn N. Deuel, L. W. Denison, O. Rev Rule, Howard J. Schroeder Reese and Dave Lleus John Milmer, W. P. Jeffries, C. B. Hopkins and Bes iamin Harwood

INSURANCE: The building must be insured at all times against loss from fire and earthquake to at least 80@ of its full insurable value. A policy of title insurance for $800 000 showing that these bonds are a first lien, will be issued by the Title Insurance and Trust

SINKING FUND: At least $80.000 must be poid to the Trustee every year beginning November 1, 1926, as a sinking fund to retire bonds. The Trustee will mechase these bonds in the open market at not to exceed the call price. In the event said bonds are not available, the sum remaining in the sinking fund must be used to redeem by lot an equivalent amount of bonds at the call

The incorporation of the Company and all proceedings for the creation of the bonded indebtedness have been under the direction of Messrs Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher.

Tariff Talk Grows; General

Tone Optimistic

BY CHARLES F. WILLIS.

Editor "Arizona Mining Journal"

The prices of copper is now firmly fixed at better than 13 cents with no offerings below that point. The market is firm and sales are reported good, with steady increase in foreign demand.

The talk regarding a tariff on copper which was started at a C. and A. banquet several weeks ago seems to be gaining ground with more and more advocates. However, if the tariff is proposed to compensate for high and unrea

BONDS FOR CHRISTMAS The Permanent Gift Denominations $100 and up, yield from 4% to 7%

As the holiday season again approaches, you may be in quandary as to what Christmas gift to buy for 'Dad—for Mother—for Sister—for Brother. What gift so adequately answers the purpose as a high-grade bond? Twice a year, as the coupons are clipped, the recipient will think of you. She or he will have a permanent source of income—an incentive to save—possibly the foundation for a college education—and perhaps a first understanding of how to invest profitably—with safety.

Recall to mind the gifts you gave your family for Christmas last year—Where are those gifts today? Are they serving a useful purpose? $1000 GIVEN TO A CHILD AT BIRTH GROWS INTO $4,383.91 AT THE AGE OF 25. If the $1,000 is made as a first payment and additional sums of $500 are invested—beginning with the second year—every six months until the child is 25, the total principal sum will be over $56,000, which will yield an income of over $300 per month.

This is merely the result of PLAN in investing. It is the SAME way to financial independence.

CHRISTMAS IS THE LOGICAL TIME TO BEGIN AN INVEST-MENT PLAN—AND THERE IS NO BETTER GIFT THAN BONDS. We will send you a list of suggestions for investment, upon request.

into the sational treasury. Fertilizer is badly needed, he said, and agricultural implements must be introduced at reasonable prices so that the farmers can cultivate efficiently. In vast limestone deposits, the country has the basis for a fertilizer that he expects will soon be marketed.

Exports of lumber form an appreciable portion of Jigo-Slavia's foreign trade, coming from the forests that cover about 10 per cent of the land. In its lumber, Dr. Tresich-Pavicich believes that his country has a product that will find a ready market in the United States as the American forest resources become smaller. As in agriculture, Jugo-Slavia needs railroads to tap these natural resources, although a considerable mileage is being constructed now from money received from loans.

The Law of Credit

Credit is the expression of trust—the belief in a man's ability to meet his financial obligations. In business, as in all human relations, trust is the inspiration to large

To a merchant, credit is largely a matter of rating and collections. But to the Banker, in the financing of business, credit must be an exact science. Only on facts, deducted from, and supported by figures, may the Banker safely extend the credit desired—

Since the last week in October, the market value of 233 leading stock issues has increased 3645, 000,000. The aggregate is still $1,800,000,000 under the 1913 peak. However, it is well over $3,000,000,000 more than the value of these same stocks at the bottom of the 1921 depression.

These facts are brought out in an analysis just company of New York. This analysis places the present market value of these stocks at $12,460,000,000 during the last week in October, and $9,247,000,000 in August, 1921.

All groups of stocks, except coal, have shared in this rise in value. The market value of three leading coal securities covered by this analysis has fallen 1.7 points during this period.

Russell and Gordon E. Gillespie. It was indicated the petition for the retention of Charles C. Fife, incurbent of this office, would be lignored.

A petition bearing $90 names and demanding the retention of Fife was presented yesterday to the board by W. C. Snyder. The petition further demands that the results of the recent county civil service examinations for this post, in which Mr. Fife was ranked eighth, be disregarded.

Attention was called in the petition to the fact that Mr. Fife has had twelve years' experience in the purchasing agent's office and that for the last two years he has filled the post of county agent satisfactorily.

the post of county agent satisfactorily.

Several weeks ago Mr. Fife appeared before the Civil Service Commission for a rehearing and charged that he had been grossly misrated on the question of experience. He declared that he had twelve years of experience in the work of purchasing agent but that none of the other candidates had nearly as much.

Civil service rules provide that the successful candidate rust be hosen from among the first three applicants.

The petition asks that a promotional examination be conducted and that Mr. Fife be appointed to the position.

Congress will be as distasteful to the poli-ticians as it will be gratifying to the taxpayers. The President holds that the idea of the Federal budget is to protect the taxpayers, not the tax-spenders. In the fur-therance of this policy he recommends a reduction of $268,957,644 in the government expenditures for the coming fiscal year and a corresponding reduction of about $350. 000,000 in the amount of taxes collected. Due to the economical administration o the government during the last two years, a surplus of $600,000,000 has been accumulated in the Federal treasury. voracious fishes with rich, oily fieth and boundless appetite. Of these there are a good many kinds, of varying sizes, all active and gamy, the choicest catch of the angler who likes to strike for mighty fishes which demand courage and strength as well as skill and technique.

There are certain districts in the North Temperate Zone justly famous for these fishes.

One of these is the California coast from Point Concepcion to Cape San Lucas, the rocky island of Santa Catalina standing pre-aminent. Another is about the Hawaiian Islands, and especially the deep channel between the main island and Oahu.

Still another is the southern coast of Japan, from Yokohama to Nagasaki.

In the Atlantic fishes of similar types are found, but nowhere in such abundance as in the Pacific.

Their special center is in the Mediterranean, where the tunns was first found and where it acquired its name, Thunnos, Thynnus, Tuna, Thon and Tunny. The weight measure, the ton, is supposed to have taken its name from this huge fish that never weighs a ton, though it looks an though it might. In the West Indies some of these fishes are found and they coasionally trail the Gulf Stream as far as Cape Cod.

WHERE THEY SPAWN

The large fishes of this type, the tunnies and albacores, never cast their spawn near affore, and young specimens are very rarely seen. In lover saw a tunny under eighteen inches long and one would look far to flad more of them. I found a young tuna once in the market of Genoa and another like it in Kobe. A young albacore I never saw, though little bonitos are some intended in the open sea where the eggs are thrown out and fertilized and where the young remain until they seek the shore in search of sardines, anchovies and other small ree-awisming fish which constitute the bulk of their food.

SOCIETY

BY CORA YOUNG Another beautiful Los Angeles girl, Miss Hortense McLaughlin, made her formal debut here last night at a large ball given by her night at a large ball given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mc-Laughlin, at the Biltmore Hotel.

Miss McLaughlin was radiant in an exquisite imported frock of pink and cloth of silver. Mrs. McLaughlin wore a handsome gown of white velvet, and Miss Cecile McLaughlin, sister of the young guest of honor, was in a sparkling pink creation, elaborately beaded. Mrs. Edward McLaughlin was attired in a stunning tangerine velvet.

Greaton, elasorately beaded. Ark. Edward McLaughlin was attired in a stunning tangerine velvet.

The several hundred guests were received in the reception room adjoining the great ballroom, where they danced until midnight, when a sumptuous supper was served in the main dining-room.

Suggestions of Christmastide predominated in the decorating of the ballroom, reception and dining-rooms. With the red and green a great deal of gold was used, and touches of soft blue.

Miss McLaughlin, who is one of the Southland's fairest daughters, was graduated last year from a fashionable girls' school in New York and went immediately abroad with her parents, returning only a few weeks ago. A number of charming events already are being arranged in her honor.

To Marry Eastern Girl

Mrs. John E. Kendall of Glen Ridge, N. J., has announced the engagement of her daughter, Virginia Loretta Kendall, to Frederic Halsey Denman of this city.

Before leaving for the East, a little more than a year ago, Mr. Denman occupied a prominent position in the younger social set of Los Angeles, and is well known to many, who will be interested to hear of his engagement. He has just been placed in charge of the Chicago office of the International Carbon Products Company of New York.

At the bachelor dinner Saturday evening at the home of Silaby M. Spalding, the famous Bachelors' Club selected its board of governors, as follows: Messrs. William R. Miller, Alian Morphy, Gabriel Diague, George H. Ennis, Gurney Newlin, Reese Liewellyn, Alfred J. Salisbury, Richard M. Griffith, David O. Brant, Alexander Macdonald, William T. McFie and Robert H. Parsons.

But Arnoid Bennett is an author that is supposed to have his finger on the public pulse, essentially a modern of the moderns. He is also a good deal of a man's author. Brown is very good at night, paris says—which is, indeed, unusual. Velvet is the queen of fabries for evening—which is not to be wondered at. Copper lame is replacing gold and silver.

So here is a frock that takes the three statements to heart all at once, for, it's brown velvet, banded with copper lame. Strange to say, it's quite absurdly easy to make—a trick of cutting the full, flaring front and draping it. There is a bit of fulness in the back, too, and a belt—both of which make it much better for the average figure than the unmitigated pillar gown.

Supervisor Bean and Mr. McClelan engaged in heated words, the former opposing anything but the straightest possible course for the highway. Mr. Bean was joined in this view by Supervisor Wright. This left no decision possible because Supervisor Woodley declared he would form no opinion until looking over the ground. All of the supervisors will do this, they agreed, and the matter will come up for decision at some future meeting.

POISON RUM DEATH CASE NONSUITED

Claim for Damages of $20,000 Fails as Evidence is Not Identified

SITUATION EXPLAINED

The question is one of method in connecting Moneta seenue at One Hundred and Twentich street with Figueroa street. There are four blocks of unoccupied lota north of One Hundred and Twentich street on the west side of Moneta, and the question is whether Moneta avenue shall continue its present course but be widened and take in a corper of the property to make a more gradual tyrn, or whether it shall cross the realty property diagonally, thus naking a more gradual job. The lots are all owned by one man. Fred L. Coffee.

Supervisor McClelan, in whose district the question arises, and supervisor Cogswell hold that the map shows the easiest and most practicable adjustment, and that it the Coffee property were traversed like compensation proceedings. They propose to follow the present plan, or make the connection some distance to the south, probably over Laconia Boulevard on a 100-foot road now set diagonally.

But a group of property owners of the district interested in realization of the Bruadway-to-the-Soal project sent in a project of the map as now drafted. A young and very nervous ban dit robbed Jules Joergens, a jew-eler of 907 West Eleventh street, eler of 907 West Eleventh street, of $1000 in watches and jewelry at the dinner hour last night.

Joergens was alone in the store when the bandit entered, unmasked. As the jeweler came forward the nervous youth produced a large revolver and directed Joergens to walk to the rear of the store, face the fall and put his hands over his head. Joergens compiled, and then the youth struck his head with the gun-butt, knocking the jeweler out.

When Joergens recovered his senses he discovered his senses he discovered his shelves and show cases had been looted and that the bandit was gone.

Horse Exempt

Joseph Holody, president of the Holody Brothers Company, operating five cafeterias in the city, was arraigned yesterday in Justice Baird's court on a complaint charging embezzlement. His hearing was set for the 12th inst. The complaint was issued by Dep. Dist. Atty Vobayda and also is directed against Martin Holody, a brother, who is secretary in the company. The brother has fled to another State, investigators seeking him say.

ACTING AND SCENERY By Edwin Schallert

can set it down in you notebook that when you go to "The Virginian," if you do, you'll look upon a lot of long-neglected hu-manness shining thrugh the scenic surface of an outdoor play. What is more, you'll behold some locations that are not altogether wrecked by the figing of the heavy cameras. You'll also see a cast in which certain personalities appear in an attractive new light.

The combination of these various things gees a long ways to make the new show, that opened yesterday at the Mission Theater, appealing. And "Picking Peaches," the comedy with Harry Langdon Mack Sennett's new jazz star, addithe necessary spice. It is filled with paprika, in fact, for it is the ractest affair that has been turned out by the Sennett fun factory in ages.

evening with a capacity attendance and stars of the production as well as others, in the audience.

"The Virginian" is one of those stories that aiways brings on a lot of argument. Anybody who has read the book has his or her own idea of how the characters should be cast and played, and although Owen Wister's novel is fully twenty years old, there are still many people who can and will speak authoritatively on its contents, be-people who can and will speak authoritatively on its contents, because it is one of the books that a remembered.

The production is certainly well above the average western in interest. That much is to be said in its favor. The fights are made secondary to the very human evolution of Molly Wood's character, and her romance with "The Virginian." Thanks to the presence of Florence Vidor, these scenes have a real heart interest, with much of the spirit of Owen Wister seeming to penetrate them.

Not a great deal is made of the bigger climaxes of the capture of the cattle rustlers, and the execution of Steve. The scenes would hardly carry at all were it not for

Each radiator an independent steam heating plant

MANY who need heating systems this year seem to be delaying their decision because nothing that they have investigated eems quite satisfactory.

They want a system that doesn't cost a lot of money, that won't require a general tearing up before it can be installed, that will be economical and healthful, and—above all—

There is one heating system that is free from all these objections—and it is a steam heating system, too. It doesn't even require a chimney, a cellar, or solid or liquid fuel.

It can be easily and quickly installed It is as convenient as a kitchen gas range. Each radiator is an independent heating plant. No matter how many you may have installed, you only light those that you want, and only just before you want them.

Economical, instantaneous, automatic steam The heat furnished by these radiators is even and steady—free from ups and downs.

An automatic regulator controls the supply of gas to the burner, so that the steam is kept at an even pressure without any attention from anyone. When you want heat, turn the valve and light.

The Clow Burner with its tiny Bunsen flames converts 100% of the fuel into usable healthful heat—without further attention from you and without smoke, dust or grime.

CLOW "GASTEAM" HEATING SYSTEMS

Manufactured by JAMES B. CLOW & SONS, Chicago

The colds and throat troubles due to air that is dried out by ordinary methods of heating will soon begin to be common. Most peop accept them as a necessary evil. Others go to expense and trouble of providing humidifiers.

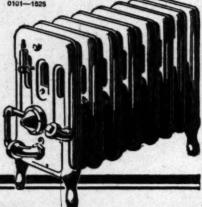

With Clow Gasteam Radiators neither the colds nor the humidifiers are necessary.

These radiators represent the only type of heating system that preserves the normal moisture of the air. Their Bunsen flames actually make moisture, thus automatically humidifying the air and providing unusually wholesome heat.

Send for designs and prices Clow Gasteam burners are designed according to principles recommended by the by over twenty years of continuous use. Clow "Gasteam" Radiators are made in a number of attractive designs, of which the latest and most popular is the four-column Colonial. Write for catalogs and prices on your business stationery.

20 Lucky Strike Cigarettes today only for [NOTE: The United States Government, through the Internal Revenue Department, [collects 6c on every package of twenty cigarettes as evidenced by the Revenue Stamp]

Why we want Every Man in Los Angeles to try Lucky Strike

To men who have not yet tried Lucky Strike

This is not philanthropy, just business. You are introduced to a cigarette today which sooner or later you're bound to try. This merely hastens that happy time. Tear off the coupon now.

We have found that 88% of the men who try Lucky Strike immediately adopt them. So to introduce you to Lucky Strike we can well afford to make this special offer of paying the 6c Government tax today ourselves.

No words can do justice to the Toasted Process in Lucky Strike. It takes us an extra 45 minutes to toast the flavor in, but it takes you only a moment to try the flavor out—the test of the toasting is the tasting.

Smoke this package tax free-you'll get acquainted with a cigarette so balanced in the blend, so mild in the flavor, so smooth in the smoking and so fragrant with the sealed-in-virtues of the toasted process, that you'll change to this brand that never changes-and you'll never change again.

To men who already smoke Lucky Strike

We want you, too, to get this tax free package, maybe to pass it on to a friend who doesn't yet know the pleasure you know.

Let him enjoy Lucky Strike as you do. Tell him to try one package and then see if he agrees with you and millions of others that there's no cigarette with such characteristic superiority.

Tell him why you prefer Lucky Strike. Tell him that the extra 45 minutes of toasting insures a flavor that never varies. He'll find, as you have, that this is a cigarette which can be continuously enjoyed. The flavor never varies.

Some one introduced you to your first Lucky Strike and you recall it as a lucky discovery. So pass the good word along. Give some friend the same opportunity. Tear out the coupon now.

SANTA TO DO HIS BIT ON TRAINS

Leaves Reindeer for Limited

Santa Claus will have to hustle this year.

For the announcement was made yesterday by T. C. Peck, general passenger agent of the Union Pacific system here, that every through train on its lines is to have a Christman tree, together with a full complement of candy, toys and all of the fixings necessary for a real Christmas Eve celebration.

And that means that the venerable saint will have to catch twenty-five different trains speeding at a mile a minute across widely separated portions of the West, bearing not only a big tree, but a huge pack that contains everything necessary to make it a treasure chest of real Christmas fun. On each pack will be the address:

"For the kiddies who have"

To the kiddies who have to travel on Christmas. With the holiday greetings of the Union Pacific system."

BDODATION CRANTED.

To travel on Christmas. With the holiday greetings of the Union Pacific system."

Both operating and traffic departments of the railroad are co-perating to see that Santa doesn't miss a single train that carries an observation car, and a large staff has been especially assigned to assist in seeing that the huge amount of presents and trimmings necessary are properly distributed waiting at the various strategic points along the Union Pacific system."

The Los Angeles Limited and the Continental Limited will be started from here by Santa on the 23rd and 24th inst., and other trains will be met at Ogden, Salt Lake City, Portland. Pocatello, Cheyenne, Denver, North Platte, Kansas City and Omaha.

Hester and Horsefield testified they refused to have anything further to do with the "moving."

They were taken into custody following a second attempt to rob the ballroom. It was stated the youths were not involved in the more recent effort to steal the safe, a crime for which three other men are now facing prosecution.

PERJURY IS SEEN IN MANN-ACT HEARING

The case of Herbert Hunt, The case of Herbert Hunt, a film cowboy, charged with violation of the Mann Act, was continued yesterday by United States Commissioner Long until this afternoon. It is charged that Hunt brought Ruth Barnes here from Denver for immoral purposes. She was placed on the stand yesterday and aithough she is asserted to have previously admitted immoral conduct she denied this yesterday. Commissioner Long declared in continuing the case that it was evident to him some one was guiltof perjury.

AUTO EMULATES PLANE, OWNER HURT

"For just a few seconds "For just a few seconds I thought I was an aviator," remarked Robert Mannis yesterday when brought to the Receiving Hospital for treatment. The free-as-a-bird feeling came to him, Mannis said, when a strong gust of wind carried his car a few feet in the wrong direction, then left it on its side at the side of the road. The accident occurred at the intersection of Sherman Way and Hazeiton street, Van Nuys, Mannis, who resides at California and Figueroa streets, was bruised and cut.

DYNAMITE CACHE FOUND DYNAMITE CACHE FOUND
Hollywood police were asked yesterday to take charge of three sticks of dynamite and a box of percussion caps found by Dr. H. Sadler in the rear of his home at 2640 Commonwealth avenue. Dr. Sadler could give no explanation as to how the explosive came to be in his yard, but in no uncertain tones asked that it be immediately removed. The giant powder is now at the Hollywood Police Station awaiting an owner.
